

26TH DECEMBER

Boxing Day

Traditionally a day for family and friends with relaxation at the fore, enjoy access to our health club, indulge in board games for a cosy atmosphere, pamper yourself with rejuvenating beauty treatments, and explore our scenic grounds for leisurely walks.

Join us for a glass of bucks fizz, before proceeding to the Tylney Suite for a delectable light lunch sharing platter accompanied by our resident harpist, after which you are welcome to relax in our lounges before getting ready for a delightful evening!

Begin a wonderful evening with Champagne and canapés, followed by a five-course Black Tie Dinner in the Oak Room Restaurant. The Jazz Trio 'Omnibus' will provide live music in the Italian Lounge after dinner, making the evening truly magical.

27TH DECEMBER

Departure Day

Following a hearty breakfast in the Oak Room Restaurant, we bid you a fond farewell. Alternatively, stay another night or two, you are very welcome to extend your visit.

24TH DECEMBER

Christmas Eve

From the moment you arrive, immerse yourself in the charm of our historic hotel. Settle in and take time to explore, then join us from 2:00pm in one of our cosy, fire-lit lounges for a festive welcome featuring indulgent sweet and savoury platters.

As evening approaches, enjoy a sophisticated cocktail and canapés reception with the management team in the elegant Italian Lounge, accompanied by the uplifting harmonies of a local choir performing beloved Christmas carols.

Later, sit down to a relaxed and refined dinner in the Oak Room Restaurant, enhanced by the gentle sounds of our resident pianist.

To end the night, gather in the Mattingley Suite for a screening of Midnight Mass from Westminster Abbey, paired with warming hot toddies and homemade mince pies, a serene and comforting close to Christmas Eve.

25TH DECEMBER

Christmas Day

Begin Christmas Day with a delicious, leisurely breakfast to ease yourself into the festivities. Spend the morning relaxing in our spacious lounges – the perfect place to enjoy time with loved ones and soak up the joyful atmosphere.

As the afternoon unfolds, a special visit from Father Christmas brings festive cheer, while mulled wine is served in our beautifully decorated lounge. Afterwards, make your way to the Tylney Suite for a light lunch accompanied by fine wine and the charming melodies of our resident pianist.

For those feeling adventurous, take part in our festive “picture matching” hunt – a fun way to explore the grandeur of Tylney Hall and its picturesque grounds. We’ll also be tuning in together to watch His Majesty King Charles III’s Christmas Day speech.

As evening arrives, join us for a celebratory Champagne and canapé reception before sitting down to a sumptuous Christmas Dinner in the award-winning Oak Room Restaurant. After dinner, unwind in the opulent Italian Lounge with the smooth, soulful sounds of our saxophonist, the perfect way to end a magical Christmas Day.
